EDIBLE GARDEN REVOLUTION Workshop at the Halawa Xeriscape Garden

WHAT: Do you dream of owning a home garden but don't know where to begin? Board of Water Supply (BWS), Friends of Halawa Xeriscape Garden (FOHXG), and Permablitz Hawaii's Matthew Lynch present an informative workshop where participants will acquire basic skills that they can implement in their backyard or tiny space. Start your New Year with a water savvy landscape that is functional and pleasing to look at!

WHEN: Saturday, January 16, 2016
10:30 a.m. to 12:00 p.m.

WHERE: Halawa Xeriscape Garden
99-1268 Iwaena Street
Halawa Valley's Central Park Industrial Area

COST: $5.00 for community and Free for members of the FOHXG (depending on level of membership),

DETAILS: This workshop covers: building a no-dig garden, maximizing production in small spaces, tips to extend your harvest, perennial tropical systems, easy-to-grow plant species, backyard chickens, seed-saving basics and much more – bring your backyard farming questions and learn how healthy plants require less water to maintain.

REGISTER: Advanced registration is required. Registration opens on Tuesday, January 5, 2016, and closes at 2:00 p.m. on Friday, January 15, 2016, or when all spaces are filled. Call 748-5320 or email workshops@hbws.org to register. For more information about xeriscaping or classes at the Halawa Xeriscape Garden, log on to www.boardofwatersupply.com. BWS security requires full name and address of all participants.
